- f. 2026, Saskatchewan
- g. 2027, Nunavut
- h. 2028, Newfoundland and Labrador
- i. 2029, Manitoba

(2) In the circumstance in which a change in the previously determined host schedule for the joint annual conference is requested, by either organization, such a change shall be proposed to the other organization at least 14 months prior to the date of the next conference.

(3) Where a change to the previously determined host schedule for the joint annual conference has been proposed, the executive body of both organizations shall deliberate on the proposal, and if it is acceptable, shall ratify the proposal and communicate the ratification decision to the other organization no later than 12 months prior to the date of the next conference.

(4) Any changes ratified under (3) shall be communicated to the membership of both organizations in a timely fashion.
